

Message from SP (D) South Andaman
From the Desk of Superintendent of Police, South Andaman District

I convey my heartiest greetings and best wishes to the people of Andaman & Nicobar and all members of Andaman & Nicobar Police.

As police officer, we are duty bound to uphold law, without fear and favour, and provide a sense of security to the people. And while pursuing the same, we also need to update and innovate to keep pace with the changing dynamics of society and keep with the changing role of police in this fast changing technology driven world. Our constant strive to experiment and innovate on new platforms for public police interface led us to this endeavor, to help create or enhanced environment, which is conducive to peace, progress and development of the society and people of Andaman & Nicobar Islands.

Our duty entails on us the responsibility to show greater professionalism, transparency and honesty in our functioning and I assure all of you my sincere support in bonafide discharge of duty.

I hope and expect your whole hearted cooperation in improving the quality of policing and delivery of public services at the grass roots.

Let us reiterate our resolve to serve the people with sincerity and commitment.

Jai Hind

Atul Kumar Thakur, IPS
